Ways You Will Save With HomeServicesLink

... and trust in your home.

September 2009

Dear Jim

Fall is officially here. It is time to start thinking about a whole new set of items to address around the house before the bitter cold days of winter arrive. See the feature section below for a seasonal items checklist to make sure your home is ready. We have also added some new Partner's to save you money and some discounts from our contractors.

HomeServicesLink will help you save both money and time providing you fast access to high quality and cost competitive contractors, discounts and exclusive special offers and we do all of the leg work contacting the contractors for you, not like other services out there.

I hope you have had a good summer and you have us at the top of your list when you need contractors.. From maintenance and repairs, remodeling and improvements to complete additions, just email or call (513-271-1888).

Seasonal Checklist

Just a few items to consider as you prepare your home for the winter season:

- Furnace Tune-up
- Gutter cleaning (before a freeze)
- Roof/flashing check
- Weather stripping/window and door seals
- Exterior painting and caulking
- Landscape maintenance
- Lawn weed & feed

Did you know...

- ... foggy glass in insulated windows can only be fixed one way. Click here to learn more.
- ... the asphalt sealing businesses shut down about the end of October as the weather cools.
- ... early Fall is a great time for exterior painting with the cooler days.
- ... cellulose insulation contains boric acid which makes it pest and fire resistant
- ... confused by the variety of gutter covers on the market. Click here for our opinion.
